PRESS RELEASE

CHRISTMAS AT THE LANGHAM, HONG KONG

(Hong Kong, November 2009) Christmas at The Langham, Hong Kong is set to be a magical experience. The hotel will be transformed into an enchanting winter wonderland, filled with music, entertainment and lavish decorations.

Festive culinary favourites will be prepared by Executive Chef, Mark Bannon and his team at The Bostonian, L'Eclipse, Main St. Deli and Palm Court.

Festive Dining Program

The Bostonian, famed for its fresh seafood and steaks, will be offering 3-course semi buffet lunches and sumptuous 4-course semi buffet dinners on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day respectively. An 7-course lavish dinner will be served on New Year's Eve.

Main St. Deli is going "all-American" for the festive month. Think crisp roast Turkey and warm chocolate bread pudding, all served in serious portion sizes.

Main St. Deli's Turkey Takeaway menu also gives you the chance to hold a delicious festive meal, without any of the hassle, at home. Priced from HK$888 for a Turkey only to HK$1,888 for a Combo. Ideal for 16 to 20 people the Combo features a U.S. Tom turkey with all the trimmings and choice of pumpkin pie or pecan pie.

For a combination of Asian and Western fare, join us at L'Eclipse where the international buffet is available everyday. A variety of hot items including, Wagyu beef and Boston lobster served alongside delicious festive desserts will certainly satisfy your palate.
